0700 AM - Meet your driver at the hotel lobby after an early breakfast at the hotel or with a packed breakfast.

Depart Bangalore for you "Mysore & Hassan tour"

Our first stop would be at Ranganathaswamy Temple - Srirangapatna an important Vaishnavite pilgrimage centre of South India. Dedicated to Lord Vishnu, Ranganatha Swamy Temple stands beautifully in Srirangapatna (Mandya District), a culturally rich town near Mysore city. The name of this town has also been derived from this temple.

Continue to Ranganathittu bird sanctuary.

It boasts of a wide variety of avian fauna. You can spot a wide array of migratory birds that have flown from places like Siberia, Australia and North America. Some of the birds that you can spot here are shag, white ibis, Little Egret, little cormorant, open-billed stork, Spoon bills, painted stork, White Ibis, river tern, Darter, Peafowl, Pond Heron, Wild Duck, large cormorant, heron, great stone plover, kingfisher, Cattle Egret, the lesser whistling teal, Indian cliff swallow Great Stone Plover, River Tern, of Streak-throated Swallows and many more.

The best time to visit the sanctuary is between the months of June and November as these are nesting month for the birds.

Continue to your hotel and check in.

In the evening, visit Brindavan Gardens, the most sought after locations for experiencing nature's beauty first hand. These gardens have been featured in numerous Hindi, Tamil, Telugu, Kannada and Malayalam films. Indigenous and exotic species of plant varieties are found here. It holds a water fountain musical show where the fountain waters move along a rhythmic beat of Indian music. The rest of the evening is at leisure. OR explore the handicraft centres and shopping of silk or sandalwood articles in the local market.

Overnight in Mysore.

After Lunch proceed to The Mysore Palace

Mysore Maharaja Palace which stands majestically, captivating every visitor with its incomparable beauty. This palace is said to be one of the largest palaces in India.

Mysore Palace history spans for more than 500 years. But what you see now in Mysore is the modern palace built in 1912. The first palace was built during 14th century by the then Wodeyar kings.

The palace is now converted into a museum that treasures souvenirs, paintings, jewelry, royal costumes and other items, which were once possessed by the Wodeyars. It's a Kaleidoscope of stained glass & mirrors. The tastefully decorated and intricately carved doors open into luxuriously decorated rooms. The ground floor with an enclosed courtyard displays costumes, musical instruments, children toys and numerous portraits. The upper floor has a small collection of weapons. The beautifully carved mahogany ceilings, solid silver doors, white marble floors and superb columned Durbar Hall are a feast to the eyes. The palace is a treasure house of exquisite carvings and works of art from all over the world. Exquisitely carved doors open into stunningly luxurious rooms.

You, bid farewell to your "Mysore "tour as you are transferred to the airport / railway station in Bengaluru for your onward journey. (B)
